Objective:

This policy outlines the procedures and criteria for issuing a Conditional Letter of Acceptance to students at LaSalle College Vancouver. A Conditional Letter of Acceptance is issued to applicants who meet certain admission requirements but are still in the process of fulfilling the following specific condition before full acceptance can be granted.

Scope:

This policy applies to all applicants seeking admission to LaSalle College Vancouver, including all programs, who meet certain eligibility requirements but must complete additional requirements before their admission is fully confirmed.

While most programs at LaSalle College Vancouver accept students on a first-qualified, first-offered basis, some programs may admit students on the following condition.

Applicants currently in Grade 12

Students currently enrolled in grade 12 may apply for conditional letter of acceptance for programs at LaSalle College Vancouver. They are required to submit a proof of current enrolment. Admission to any program is based on current report cards and interim transcripts. Admission is not guaranteed. It will be subject to submitting the official documents and grades, if required.
