LCI Melbourne offers creative education that's different by design.

Our art, design, fashion and business students thrive in small, hands-on classes, seamlessly combining theory and practice, led by experienced mentors, delivered in our Collingwood campus.

LCI Melbourne is one of 12 higher education institutions on five continents that make up LCI Education. With a mission to connect people with opportunities through quality education, we were established in Montreal, Canada, more than 65 years ago, and now welcome 20,000 learners worldwide, each year.

Fashion and Costume Design

This major goes beyond creating head-turning dresses or provocative retail displays; it's about staying ahead of trends and shaping consumer demand in an industry that balances glamour with hard work.

Filmmaking and Photography

This major is designed to develop your creative eye and technical prowess across a range of visual mediums. You'll learn to craft compelling narratives and imagery, starting with still photography and progressing to the dynamic moving images.

Graphic and Digital Design

This major focuses on advancing your visual literacy and translating creative concepts across a wide range of mediums. From traditional print to digital platforms, you'll learn to communicate ideas and represent brands with impact and precision.

Interactive Design

In this major, you'll develop the skills to create compelling digital experiences that seamlessly connect people with products and services across various industries. Focus on human-centred design principles, emphasising user experience (UX), user interface (UI), and service innovation.

Interior Design

This major emphasises environmental responsibility, ergonomic design, and cultural sensitivity, preparing you for a diverse range of projects across residential, hospitality, corporate, and global markets.

Visual Arts

This major is about discovering your unique artistic voice in a dynamic studio-based environment. It emphasises individual development and experimentation across a wide range of mediums and aesthetics, preparing you for a multifaceted career in the arts.

Located in the heart of Collingwood, in a purpose-built, light-filled campus, LCI Melbourne is where your creativity meets its purpose.

Your voice, needs and interests are at the heart of how we teach, with our different by design approach.

Learn in small-classes supported with personalised mentoring, from industry-professionals.

Enjoy a thriving creative campus, hosting regular gallery exhibitions, talks, student meet-ups and industry events.
